

Part-Time Museum Educator

Discover the difference the arts can make in Southeast Texas! Join the Stark Museum of Art education team and learn to bring the arts to life! The Stark Museum of Art is looking for a Part-Time Museum Educator who can provide meaningful and engaging experiences by conducting tours and facilitating educational programs for K – 12 school students and the public. This position requires initiative, a passion for working with people of all ages, strong attention to detail, organizational skills, positive attitude, and a sense of humor.

Requirements:

- High school diploma required, Bachelor's degree preferred
- Formal or informal teaching experience preferred
- Public speaking experience preferred
- Passion for art and the humanities and their educational role in today's world
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office programs
- Skill in using research techniques
- Ability to create, compose and edit written materials
- Skill in organizing resources and establishing priorities
- Highly motivated self-starter with a hands-on work ethic, good judgment, a positive, can-do attitude and a sense of humor

Schedule:

- Tuesday-Saturday, occasional evening events
- 15-20 hours per week/with most work during school year; approximately 600 hours per year

Duties:

- Provide curriculum-based school tour experiences for Pre-K-12 school students for groups of 10-12 students, including assisting in the art studio
- Lead and facilitate activities, art experiences, games and other educational opportunities during on- and off-site programming
- Research artists, works of art, and other subjects and develop written interpretation materials
- Set up, maintain, and break down educational programming materials and spaces
- Other duties as assigned

Email cover letter and resume to Sarah Wester at swester@starkfoundation.org. Please put Part-Time Museum Educator in subject line.